Paul Andrews is full of surprises. With his fresh, award winning comedy and unique and inventive material Paul takes his audiences on a bizarre journey to a world of fun and magic.

Fast and funny, Paul's performances feature audience interaction and participation to create unique memorable comedy situations that are suitable for audiences of all ages. The zany visual element also gives Paul an international appeal and, in the past fourteen years, he has performed over twenty countries around the world to a combined audience of over one and a half million people.

Whatever your event you can be sure that Paul has experience of performing somewhere similar. He has worked everywhere from holiday camps to the ballroom of the Savoy Hotel in London; on television and radio, in comedy clubs, working men's clubs, students unions and west-end theatres.

An impressive list of corporate clients have utilised Paul's talents as a magician, host and presenter including British Airways, Reuters, Bass, Clinique, Capital Radio, Rank Xerox and Hilton Hotels. Paul has also acted as a consultant on several occasions creating unique effects for advertising campaigns and television, stage and conference productions. His recent credits include producer/director for ITV's Tricky TV and magic consultant for Sky One's Shock Treatment

Paul provides the very best in quality magical entertainment either 'Close Up' right under the noses of guests or as a self contained cabaret act.
